How to read this catalog:
Composition bodies: Bodies are available painted and strung (as shown in photos) or unstrung and unpainted. Please specify when ordering. For composition bodies in another stain color (ex. French Chocolate) see page 61 for list of stains, the minimum order is 12 bodies.

Doll Artisan Guild: An international association dedicated to the education of porcelain Dollmakers. Become a member to get the latest dollmaking education information via the member magazine, DOLLS Beautiful, four times per year; events and competitions around the world and top-notch seminars focused on all aspects of dollmaking for the beginner to advanced hobbyist or professional. Go to: www.DollArtisanGuild.org or call the DAG at 1-607-432-4977 for more information

Guarantee: All products in the catalog are backed by Seeley’s and guaranteed to perform as specified. If not completely satisfied with any product, contact your supplier or our Customer Service department.

New dolls/products: since the D52 catalog are all marked "NEW!".

On-line catalog: To see all of our dolls in full color, please go to our shopping cart at www.seeleys.com.

Painting instructions: There are instructions for china painting our dolls available. In the text by each doll you will notice either a worksheet listed (WS…) or a back issue of a magazine.

Part numbers: All Seeley part numbers (SKU#) are listed in BOLD. Please use these when ordering.

Patterns: Many of the patterns available for each doll are shown either by the doll in the corresponding mold section OR in the composition body section if the doll fits on a composition body. Body patterns are not shown here but may be found on the shopping cart at www.seeleys.com. There is a pattern index in the back of this catalog.

Photos: We would like to thank all the people whose beautiful dolls appear in this catalog. Any dolls shown that are the antique are marked as such. We apologize for any errors in reporting the dollmaker.

Prices: Prices are printed on a separate price list. If it did not come with this catalog, please request one or download the latest price list from www.seeleys.com. Outside the USA, please contact the Seeley’s Distributor in your area for prices in your currency.

Website: Seeley’s website includes information on all of our products, tech tips, a store locator to find our products easily, Q & A board where you may post questions. You may find information on seminars, events, competitions and education at the Doll Artisan Guild website at: www.DollArtisanGuild.org.

SFBJ and Bleuette

The Société Française de Fabrication de Bébés et Jouets (S.F.B.J.), which means French Society for the Manufacture of Dolls and Toys, was formed in 1899 to compete with German dollmaking companies. Eight French doll and toy factories, including Jumeau and Gaultier, comprise the Société. Many of the molds used had been created earlier by Jumeau. Some of the dolls made by S.F.B.J., including Joy, bear the UNIS France mark. The initials U.N.I.S. stand for Union National Inter-Syndicale.

These small dolls have one thing in common: the entire doll is porcelain. Most are German and from the beginning of the 20th century. Some are head-torso dolls, others one-piece dolls, dolls with molded shoes and socks, dolls with molded clothes. Some have painted and others glass eyes. Some have molded hair; others cut-off crown and wig.

KEY: If mold number is for the complete doll, it will have an “ST” added to the number (eg. S474ST). Head-torso: head and torso are one piece. Only shoulders and hips are jointed. General instructions for stringing all-bisque dolls can be found in Doll Artisan Vol. 17, No. 6.

Darling little Bumbles come with two different expressions: closed eyes and opened. Created by the team of Bunny Morris and C. Paul Jackson. Painted eyes. Both have dimpled, baby-fat bodies, and they make perfect children or angels; just attach a tiny pair of wings (included with the mold set). The detailed molding of the two heads, chubby one-piece body, wings and a base make this set ideal. Article: DOLS Beautiful 2003-1. Doll size: 5.5” (14cm) M6001ST Bumbles mold set (5 molds). Wt. 18.5lbs.
